

Pricing of collection research and provision of digital reproductions of objects from the collection of the Museum of Photography in Kraków

I. Collection research

The Museum charges a fee of PLN 114 PLN gross (one hundred and fourteen zlotys) for collection research which will involve additional cost, for each commenced hour of work of a Museum employee.

II. Provision of digital reproductions of objects for non-commercial research, scientific and educational purposes

The fee for providing access to up to eight digital reproductions of objects for non-commercial research, scientific or educational purposes amounts to PLN 30 gross (thirty zlotys). For orders of a greater number of reproductions, PLN 5 gross is charged for each subsequent image.

In the case of non-standard orders, requiring additional costs to be incurred by the Museum or greater involvement of its staff, the charged fee includes the cost or time needed to prepare and deliver the digital reproductions. This fee is calculated on an individual basis.

Where the reproductions of objects from the Museum's collection form major part of a planned exhibition, the conditions for providing them are defined on an individual basis.

The following in particular are considered non-commercial use, research, scientific or educational purposes:

- research papers including: publications of up to 500 copies or intended for online publication, bachelor's theses, master's theses, doctoral theses, conference presentations, etc.
- private studies,
- reviews, arts criticism,
- non-commercial websites, blogs on scientific, popular science or educational topics, etc.,
- educational activities, including presentations, works by pupils and students, publications and materials that can be accessed free of charge,
- non-commercial exhibitions part of cultural activities conducted by museums, art centres, community centres, public benefit organisations.

III. Provision of digital reproductions of objects for commercial and other purposes not listed above:

The fee for providing access to the reproductions of objects amounts to PLN 149 gross (one hundred and forty nine zlotys) for each digital reproduction, irrespective of the manner in which the reproduction is provided.

IV. In justified cases, upon express request of the Applicant providing reasons therefor, the Museum Director may reduce or waive the charge.
